

Adam Frierson Goins
3665 Hughes Avenue, Apt 223, LA CA 90034
917-751-8041
adamgoins@gmail.com

PROFILE

Dedicated musician and expressive singer with a classical music pedigree, experienced in choral performance, assistant conducting, arranging, music editing and mixing

RECENT MUSIC EXPERIENCE

KHORIKOS CHORAL ENSEMBLE — 2011-2017

Performed and traveled domestically and internationally with the CASA-Nomintated group, focusing on early and modern choral music with additional responsibilities as Assistant Conductor and Arranger for the ensemble. Highlights include:

Bass/Baritone, Smetana Lytomisl Festival, Czech Republic

Missa Propria by Jan Jirásek

Agnus Dei by Samuel Barber

When David Heard by Eric Whitacre

Bass/Baritone, Carnegie Hall, New York City

Handel's Messiah by George Frideric Handel

Bass/Baritone, Merkin Hall, New York City

World Premiere of Geography of Loss by Robert Carl

Bass/Baritone, Church of St. Luke in the Fields, New York City

Vespers by Kile Smith, with Piffaro

Bass/Baritone, Alice Tully Hall, New York City

Mille Volte Il Di by Carlo Gesualdo

Bogoróditse Djévo by Arvo Pärt

Choral Arranger, Commissioned by Khorikos, New York City

Banner of Youth - a choral arrangement of Claude Debussy's Hommage a Rameau, with text by Daisaku Ikeda

YOUNG NEW YORKERS CHORUS — 2005-2009

Performed with in New York with additional responsibilities as Mixing Engineer. Performance Highlights include:

Bass/Baritone, Merkin Hall, New York City

I Thank You God For This Most Amazing Day by Eric Whitacre

Hide & Seek By Imogen Heap

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

CONTENT PRODUCER, New York, NY & Los Angeles, CA — 2009 - Present

Former Staff and current Freelance Producer in advertising, specializing in all Post Production aspects from Editorial and Visual Effects to Music Production and Licensing

Adam Frierson Goins
3665 Hughes Avenue, Apt 223, LA CA 90034
917-751-8041
adamgoins@gmail.com

EXECUTIVE PRODUCER - Huma-Huma Music & Sound — 2013 - 2014

Built and maintained relationships with various agencies, production companies, directors and brands

Oversaw budgeting for all work-for-hire composition, licensed music and audio post-production

Negotiated terms for music contracts and license agreements between composers, Huma-Huma and clients, and followed-up on all re-licensing as needed

Oversaw work of producers and helped to build production infrastructure between three offices in NY and LA

EDUCATION

Brown University, Providence, RI — B.A., Computer Music, 2003

Significant coursework in music production, digital media, and practical recording techniques with additional studies of music theory, orchestration and conducting. Teaching assistant to music professor: undergraduate music theory.

Private Vocal Training with Andrew Frierson, New York City, 2004

Extensive study of vocal technique with a focus on classic aria repertoire

Juilliard School of Music, New York City — Complete Choral Musician Workshop, 2008

Studied conducting, choral blending, rehearsal planning, music history, choral recording techniques, as well as vocal training with conductor, Judy Clurman

NYU/ASCAP — Film Scoring Workshop, New York City, 2010

Studied composing, music editing and elements of producing music for film

Berklee School of Music — Online Orchestration Seminar, 2010

In depth study of the components of orchestration, including the creation and use of mockups using various “DAWs” and sample libraries

ICI Conducting Workshop, New York City — 2016

Studied conducting technique with Maestro Kirk Trevor

Richmond Symphony Conducting Workshop, Richmond, VA — 2016

Studied conducting technique with Maestro Gerard Schwartz and Maestra Erin Freeman

String Orchestra of Brooklyn Conducting Workshop, New York City — 2016

Studied conducting technique with Maestro Tito Muñoz

Los Angeles Film Conducting Intensive, Burbank, CA — 2018

Studied body movement, conducting technique and score study under the tutelage of Maestros Jorge Mester, Angel Velez, and Conrad Pope. Studied the technical and practical considerations of film score preparation, working and conducting with punches/streamers, and music copying best practices with Carl Rydlund, Bill Ross and Conrad Pope.